

CPP Assignment #8

Project: Network Communication Framework Library

Week 1 : Read group's requirement documents, understand the concept. Work with other group members to give the specific classes definition.

Week 2: Detail design. Provide all the classes need to be implemented, Define class relationship by drawing the class diagram. Give the class attribute and behaviors you need implement. Think about how to test this classes.

Week 3: Document test method, and provide test code. Implement some basic wrapper classes.

Week 4: Coding and test classes.

Week 5: Integrated test. Three groups provide their source code, build a server and client application. Test the result.